Miss Olson told of her stay with a family in Austria under the Summer program. Miss Beylard from Nice, France is attending New Bedford High School as a senior. Barylski of New Bedford attended school in a small village in France under the Winter program and told of his experiences there.

A question and answer period followed. Alan Lindsay, chairman of the program committee, presented Mrs. DeMello a contribution of $10 from the Rochester P-TA for use in the American Field Service program.

A delightful musical program was presented by the Rochester Glee Club under the supervision of Mrs. Richard H. Blasdale, with Mrs. Norman W. Lindsay, grade 7 and 8 teacher, as piano accompanist.

The group of spirituals sung effectively were "Gospel Train", "Climbing Jacob's Ladder", "I Want to be Ready", "My Lord, What a Morning" and "Ezekel Saw the Whale". Miss Linda Oliver and Roger Nolan sang the solo parts with excellent perception and tone. Mrs. Blasdale told the audience that Roger filled in on short notice when it was found out the soloist would be unable to be present.

Harold M. Gay, principal at Rochester Memorial School, was introduced to the audience by Mr. Lindsay.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Ralph Walker, president. It was voted to donate $15 to the Webber-Fiske Scholarship. An announcement was read from the Toby Hospital Snack Bar requesting the P-TA to donate homemade pastries during the week of October 8-13. No action was taken. A thank you note was read from Albert Duseault, former principal, for the gesture of appreciation shown him at his last attendance of the P-TA meeting in January.

It was voted to purchase two yellow rose the rose bushes which are the national flower of Girl Scouts, and they will be planted in time to be in bloom next year. Mrs. Walker mentioned that Mrs. Joseph A. Chamberlain and Mrs. Edmund F. Arruda were instrumental in initiating the Girl Scout and Brownie program and its success was evident by the Girl Scouts present and the number of girls in Brownies.

Mrs. Walker announced that Mrs. Urho Wainio and Mrs. Lloyd Vaughan from the executive committee were elected to serve on the nominating committee and elected off the floor were Mrs. Jesse Metcalf, Mrs. C. Stephen Lawrence, Mrs. Leo Lizotte and Mrs. John Hayes. A slate of officers will be submitted to be voted on at the April meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Kenney, a member of the ways and means committee, reported the committee had vanilla flavoring for sale. A discussion was held on the annual supper in May preceding the installation of officers for the 1961-62 season. It was mentioned the annual suppers had been catered the last two years and were very successful. In the past the suppers were potluck affairs. Mrs. Walker said that the committee to bring suggestions on the supper to the April meeting is comprised of Mrs. Nellie Balzarini, Mrs. Vaughan and Mrs. Walker.

A cake iced in white and decorated with yellow jonquils made by Mrs. Vaughan highlighted the table decorations. Assorted homemade cookies, squares and cupcakes, coffee and punch were served buffet style. In charge of refreshments were Mrs. Isabella Corriea, assisted by Mrs. Shirley Hartley, Mrs. Bertha Tavares, Mrs. Marion Vaughan, Mrs. Frances Harpin and Mr. Lindsay.
